

Nursery #INSPO

Lucky Boy Sunday at Little Pie Street 'Stanley' Delarge' toy, $149.95

REAL MUMS REVEAL THE THEMES AND PRODUCTS THAT INSPIRED THEIR FABULOUS BABY ROOMS

HOW DID YOU START TO PLAN YOUR NURSERY?

All of my inspiration came from Pinterest. I looked online and used search terms like 'nursery', 'boys' rooms', 'wallpaper', 'change table' and 'toys'. These searches brought up lots of inspiration and colour themes for the nursery.

WHAT ARE XAVIER'S FAVOURITE THINGS IN THE NURSERY?

Xavier is mesmerised by the wallpaper, which I sourced from the US. We think it's been a calming influence on him.

WHAT ITEMS DID YOU SPLURGE ON?

I fell in love with the Leander cot when I saw it in a magazine. I'm so glad I purchased it!

WHERE DID YOU SAVE SOME MONEY?

I wasn't able to find a change table that I really liked, so a set of drawers from IKEA with a non-slip change mat placed on top became our change table. The floating green shelves are also from IKEA and are great for stacking trinkets and books.

WHAT DECORATING ADVICE CAN YOU GIVE TO OTHER MUMS?

If you purchase wallpaper that needs the old-fashioned way of hanging, it's best to hire professionals for the job. We wouldn't have ended up with such a polished result if we had undertaken it ourselves.

Lauren Pratt,
35, MUM OF
XAVIER,
ONE

GET THE LOOK
● MODERN MUSE ●

IKEA
'Stockholm' cabinet with two drawers,
$399

Leander cot and bed, $1699
(includes mattress and junior bed extension kit)

Zury 'Classic Beaver' bookend, $84.95

I FELL IN LOVE WITH THE LEANDER COT WHEN I SAW IT IN A MAGAZINE. I'M SO GLAD I PURCHASED IT!

